

Winter May Linger In the Lap of Spring,

But in the course of natural events the season is sure to roll round when "The Man With the Hoe" must be greatly in evidence, or how shall the inhabitants of the earth receive sustenance? I am prepared to furnish to all the implements necessary for success in the pursuit of horticulture, agriculture and gardening.

Hoes, Garden Rakes, Forks, Weeders,
Trowels, etc.

Seeds of All Kinds:

Flower Seeds, Garden Seeds, Timothy, Red Top, Red Clover, Alsike and Alfalfa. Also constantly in stock: Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Nails, Lawn Mowers, Plows, Cultivators, Cutlery and all sorts of Hardware, Machinery, Oil for drycleaning, a superior Separator Oil. Try it. Now is the particular time when the ladies are attacked by the microbe of unrest and suffer distressing inequities from that vexing, mindy known to scientists as "Housecleaning Fever." But there is a certain cure. The microbe can be made innocuous, destroyed.

Paints, Oils, Lead, Turpentine, Stains, Varnishes, Lime, Whitewash Brushes,

Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Shelf Papers, can be had here. The cheaper kinds of Wall Papers also kept in stock, but I have sample books from which may be selected the very latest and handsomest designs and patterns of all prices, and which I shall be pleased to order at once in quantities to suit patrons. Call and see them.

Also have Linings, new patterns of Silkene Gingham, Calicoes, a fine assortment of Laces and Insertings, etc., etc. In which the ladies will be interested. Seasonable Goods at all times. Sportsmen will be pleased with the offering of fishing tackle displayed. Hats, Caps, Shoes, Groceries of all kinds—in fact everything kept in an up-to-date modern store necessary to the "Simple Life," as well as the things conducive to the enjoyment of luxurious living can be found here. Call and see. Goods shown with pleasure.

The irresistible combination of the best quality with the lowest price consistent therewith prevails at this store.

WOODBURY.

THE "WOODBURY LOCAL" TELEPHONE SERVICE.

The Waterbury Automatic Telephone Co., operating in Woodbury, Hotchkissville, Minortown, South Britain, Southford, Oxford, Bethel, Watertown, Roxbury, New Britain, Middlebury and Washington is enjoying an increasing business. The officers are: H. D. Curtis, president; A. D. Warner, vice president; G. S. Harvey, secretary and treasurer; E. F. Harvey, superintendent and manager. The board of directors: A. W. Mitchell, E. S. Boyd, H. D. Curtis, G. A. Stone, A. D. Warner, G. S. Harvey, R. F. Harvey. This company is the outgrowth of the Woodbury and local started by G. A. Stone, who worked on for years single handed. The patrons of the company speak in praise of the service. It is understood the company could have had a sum equal to a seven per cent dividend, last year, but instead the money was put into extending the business. Following is a list of the patrons:
