substitute who was accepted in his place and he left the service. That he is in peculiar circumstances and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said service except the following affidavit.

I sworn to and declared before me the day and year aforesaid

Nathaniel Smith
a judge of the Sup. Court At the day and date above mentioned personally appeared Jeremiah Helle who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath depose and say that he the said Jeremiah in the month of October in the year 1787 was at the Highlands opposite Westpoint on the Hudson river where he saw Dan Chatfield and knew him at that time to be a private soldier in Col. Harens Regiment.

Nathaniel Smith a judge of the Sup. Court

I Nathaniel Smith Judge as aforesaid do certify that it appears to my satisfaction that the said Dan Chatfield did serve in the revolutionary war as stated in the preceding declaration against the common enemy, and I now transmit the proceedings and testimony

At a County Court held in and for the County of New Haven in the District and State of Connecticut on the 5th day of December 1822 the same being a court of Record and having a seal by virtue of the Laws of said State

Personally appeared in Court, Dan Chatfield a resident in the town of Oxford in New Haven County in said State and made oath that he has no property or income of any kind except necessary clothing.

District and State of Connecticut - New Haven Be it remembered, That in the County Court held in and for the County of New Haven in the District and State aforesaid on this 5th day of December 1822 the same being a Court of Record and having a seal under the authority of said State — Personally came and appeared in open Court Dan Chatfield aged 61 years, resident in the town of Oxford in the County of New Haven in said State, and being sworn according to Law, doth on his oath declare — That he served in the Revolutionary War as follows:

That he enlisted into the Company commanded by Capt. William Monson in Col. Haden's Regiment in the month of February 1781 and that he served in said Company, untill sometime in the month of August in the year 1782 as may be seen by the article of his enlistment and his discharge heretofore transmitted to the Office of the Secretary of War That the original Declaration by him made, for the purpose of obtaining a pension under the act of Congress of the 18th of March 1818, was dated as the deponent believes in the month of April 1818, and that the same still remains in the Office of the Secretary of War, without any decision having been made thereon to his knowledge.

And I do further solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th of March 1818, and that I have ^{since that time} not by gift, sale or in any manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War" passed on the 18th of March 1818; and that I have not nor has any person in trust for me any property or securities contracts or debts due to me, nor have I any income whatever.

And I do further declare that ^{my occupation is that of a day labourer} and that I have no family residing with me.

All which is subscribed by me the day and year aforesaid Dan Chatfield ^{his} mark.

I, Job Candee of Oxford in the County of New Haven & State of Connecticut testify and say that I am with the circumstances of Dan Chatfield the subscriber of the foregoing declaration and know him to be destitute of property. Job Candee

I George Chatfield of Woodbury in the County of Litchfield & State of Connecticut certify and say that I am acquainted with the circumstances of Dan Chatfield the subscriber of the foregoing declaration and know him to be destitute of property as therein stated. George Chatfield

Sworn to and declared in the Court aforesaid.

Whereupon said Court doth order these proceedings to be entered in the Records of said Court.

Attest, B. Lathall, Clerk

O. W. & N. Division.
