

Trentonians Put On Price Board

14 Jersey Residents Are Named to 5-State Control Body

NEWARK, June 2. — Fourteen New Jersey residents are among the members of a five-State advisory committee on price control, named by OPA Administrator Leon Henderson to explain the general maximum price regulations to the public.

The committee includes educators, doctors, lawyers, heads of men's and women's organizations and businessmen in New Jersey, New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

New Jersey members are: Irving Abramson, of Paterson, president of the State CIO; Robert T. Bowman, of Trenton, former president of the State Chamber of Commerce; Miss Lelia Brown, of Trenton, president of the State Teachers' Association; Dr. Robert C. Clothier, president of Rutgers University; Horace K. Cornin, of Newark, president of Fidelity Union Trust Company; Dr. Harold W. Dadds, president of Princeton University; Franklin D'Olier, of Newark, president of Prudential Insurance Company; Mrs. Stuart L. Henderson, of Ridgewood, president of the State League of Women voters.

Also Mrs. Charles Maddock, Jr., of Trenton, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs; John W. Maynard, of Newark, president of the State Welfare Council; Mayor Vincent J. Murphy, of Newark; Mrs. Lewis L. Thompson, of Red Bank; Dr. Roscoe D. West, president of Trenton State Teachers College; Walter B. Woolley, of Woodbury, president of the State League of Municipalities.

Mrs. Henry G. Leach, chairman of the OPA price control education campaign, said the plan called for a program of education in which the public and voluntary organizations would play an active and important part.

"There is a way in which every man, woman and child can become an integral part of the war effort," Mrs. Leach said.

Nylon 'Chute Test To Be Made by Girl

HARTFORD, Conn., June 2. — Miss Adeline Gray will jump from an airplane over Brainerd Field tomorrow in the world's first "live" test of a parachute made of nylon instead of silk.

Representatives of the navy will be among the official witnesses. Miss Gray, 24, is the only girl in Connecticut licensed as a parachute jumper and is employed as a rigger by the Pioneer Parachute Company of Manchester, developer of the nylon "chute."

Henry R. Mallory, president of the Pioneer concern, said the company was searching for a silk substitute even before the Federal ban on the import of silk from Japan. After experiments with the Cheney Brothers Silk Company and the duPont Company, developers of nylon, a yarn twist and a rayon device that had a compactness, resiliency, lightness and strength approved by J. Floyd Smith, Pioneer vice president and chief engineer, who invented the first free-type parachute in 1918.

The nylon parachute has been tested exhaustively with dummies, but Miss Gray's leap will be the first occasion on which a human life has been entrusted to the fabric.

Free Nations Visioned As Havens for Jews

ATLANTIC CITY, June 2. — The United States and other free nations of the Western world are acclaimed as "the promised lands for the Jews" by the present generation by Dr. David Philipson, Cincinnati rabbi.

Dr. Philipson, last surviving founder of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, told a minority group of the conference here yesterday that Jews should abandon any hope of establishing a Jewish nation in Palestine.

Hopes of a reclaimed Palestine once was a spiritual savior for oppressed Jews, Dr. Philipson said, but now there are no longer a need for such aspirations and "religious beliefs and practices must adjust themselves to the growing thought of men."

He likened America to the Canaan of ancient times.

Sixty members of the minority group of rabbis called the meeting in protest against a Zionist movement for creation of a separate Jewish army.

Two Autoists Fined Following Smashup

Two motorists were fined yesterday in Hamilton Township Police Court as the result of a collision Saturday night on the Extonville Road in which three persons were injured.

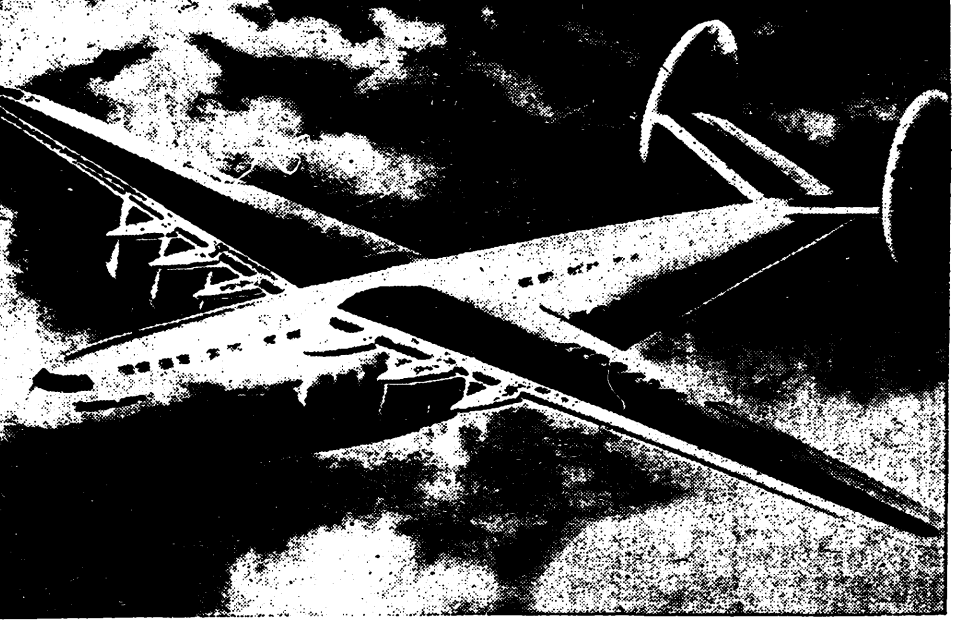

William H. Uphur, 28, Negro, of Yardville, and Eugene Negro, 44, of 41 Cummings Avenue, were fined $15 and costs each on reckless driving charges. Uphur also was charged with not having a driver's license.

Motorists Fined Eight-Pound Daughter Born to Weissmullers

Five motorists charged with speeding were fined yesterday when arraigned before Recorder Willard Grimm in Hamilton Township court.

Robert Hutchinson, of Hunter Avenue, was fined $5; Andrew Rosatti, of 425 Cummings Avenue, $4; George O. Hunter, Jersey City, $4; Charles Maahsen, 230 Perry Street, $8, and Grace Cordwell, New Egypt, $5.

Design for 250,000-Pound Flying Ship

First picture released of Glenn Martin's new design for a 250,000-pound flying ship. It was for this design (and the building of the 140,000-pound "Mars") that Glenn L. Martin won the American design award last week. This new ship will be able to carry 102 passengers, 80 pounds of luggage each, plus 25,000 pounds of mail and cargo to London in 13 hours. Previously the Mars took top honors as the world's largest flying boat.

Leaders Deadlock On Tax Measure

House Committee Rejects Treasury Figures — 2-Billion Deficit Seen

WASHINGTON, June 2. — The Administration and House tax leaders today are in acute disagreement over the tax load that should be imposed upon the American people this year to help finance the war.

The Ways and Means Committee, near the end of writing the 1942 tax bill, has rejected virtually all suggestions made by the Treasury and the White House.

Perhaps the most serious issue now lies in the difference between the amount of money the committee's income taxes will raise and the amount proposed by the administration.

Apparently assuming that the committee will adopt at least $1,000,000,000 in new and increased excise taxes, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau estimated that the committee's bill may wind up $2,000,000,000 short of the Treasury's proposed goal of $8,700,000,000.

He told reporters he felt that a sufficient share of the burden already has been imposed on the low income groups in the program tentatively adopted by the committee, and that the difference should be made up by revising upward the committee's rates for corporations and large income individuals.

The committee, on the other hand, is generally of the opinion that the $2,000,000,000, if raised at all, should come from a sales tax and impost vigorously opposed by the Administration.

The Administration's chances of fighting the ways and means committee to a successful finish in the House are slim; but the Treasury may gain considerable ground in the Senate.

Sioux Indians Lose 739-Million Claim

WASHINGTON, June 2. — The Sioux Indians lost a $739,116,256 claim against the United States today.

The Court of Claims dismissed a suit brought by the Sioux Indians seeking the money as remuneration for the taking away by the white men in 1877 of the Sioux lands comprising nearly the whole north central section of the United States.

The Indians contended they were forced to sign treaties giving up the lands as a condition to receiving subsistence from the white men.

In a 73-page resume of Sioux Indian history from 1851 the court concluded:

"In essence, the present claim is oral rather than legal, and before we can adjudicate and render judgment on it, we must have from Congress clear authority to do so."

"The court concludes as a matter of law that plaintiff (the Sioux Indians) is not entitled to recover, and the petition is therefore dismissed."

Red Must Go to Jail Despite Heart Illness

NEW YORK, June 2. — Heart ailment notwithstanding, William Warshaw, known as Robert William Weiner when he was financial secretary of the Communist Party in the United States, must begin serving July 1 his two-year sentence for passport fraud, of which he was convicted February 16, 1940, Federal Judge John C. Knox ruled yesterday.

Warshaw's conviction came less than a month after Earl Browder, then general secretary of the party, was sentenced to a four-year prison term, also for passport fraud. Warshaw's heart trouble had won him many days of sentence.

Browder was freed May 16 by presidential action.

Two Runaway Girls Returned to Parents

Two girls listed by police as runaways from their home in Lancaster, Pa., yesterday were turned over to their parents following their detention at Police Headquarters.

Detectives Stanley and Pilger said the girls identified themselves as Nancy Albright, 17, and Mary Spaulding, 16. They were working here as waitresses, they said.

Youth, 16, Arrested For Slaying Infant

MARQUETTE, Mich., June 2. — A 16-year-old boy described by police as apparently normal in all respects was held in the Marquette County Jail today as the alleged killer of baby Gloria Jean Nault, who came to her death at brutal hands Sunday.

Sergeant Charles W. Engle, of the State Police, who helped lead the hunt for the slayer after Gloria Jean's nude and bruised body was found in a truck cab, announced that Ross Heath, former Chicago boy, had confessed killing the two-month-old infant.

Trained by his cowboy-shoe footprints, the youth was arrested at his home in the new Swaney mining location 20 miles south of here yesterday and admitted killing the baby although being able to give no reason, Sergeant Engle said.

Authorities declined to disclose details of the boy's alleged confession.

Killer of Father Slain by Pursuers

SUMNERTOWN, Pa., June 2. — Trapped by a posse in an abandoned farmhouse, Henry Hartzell, 42-year-old accused slayer of his father, was killed last night in a gun battle as he attempted to shoot his way to freedom.

Hartzell waited quietly inside the shack in a woods near this Montgomery County town until Detective Albert Murphy and a State policeman battered down the door.

Then Hartzell leaped through the opening, Murphy said, and fired three shots from his .22 calibre revolver before he fell wounded by two bullets from the detective's gun.

Coroner H. Clayton Moyer, of Bucks County, said Hartzell admitted in a deathbed statement getting subsistence from the Hartzell, 69, in February during a quarrel. The body of the former barn dance fiddler was found Saturday in his farmhouse by a sister who had gone to visit him.

Search for the son began immediately.

War Blessing Spurned By New Socialist Chief

MILWAUKEE, June 2. — The Socialist party named Dr. Maynard C. Krueger, University of Chicago economics professor, its national chairman yesterday to succeed Norman Thomas, and declared the party "does not give its blessing to this war or any war."

Thomas, Socialist presidential candidate four times and chairman since 1936, declined to serve again. Krueger was his running-mate for vice president in 1940.

Earlier in the convention Thomas suggested the party go on record in support of the war effort, provided civil liberties were maintained and Fascism avoided.

$500 War Saving Bond Given Class at N. J. C.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 2. — New Jersey College for Women seniors presented a $500 war savings bond to the college at class day exercises yesterday. The bond at maturity will be used for the purchase of books or to defray costs of a new library.

Miss Betty Steiner, of Vineland, directed the class day exercises.

Theatres Join In War Bond Drive

Nation-Wide Goal $100,000,000 for 12-Month Period

Trenton RKO theatres have joined the ranks of 15,000 motion picture theatres in the United States in a nation-wide campaign to sell not less than one hundred million dollars worth of war stamps and war bonds within a period of twelve months.

The motion picture campaign was organized, in cooperation with the Treasury Department, by the Theatres Division of the War Activities Committee of the picture industry.

The committee, proudly announcing the enthusiasm of its members, declares: "This will be the first unanimous drive in the history of our industry."

Through the organizational mechanism that has been set up, all local motion picture theatre activity in the country becomes a unified system for war work, patrons now being able to buy war stamps in the most convenient manner. Patrons may also subscribe for war savings bonds in $25, $50 or $100 denominations and receiving their duly registered securities by mail from the Treasury Department within a few days.

Employees of the theatres also recently concluded courses under professional instruction for both first aid and air raid emergencies.

Navy Training School At Old Home of Elks

WASHINGTON, June 2. — The Coast Guard soon will take over the old Elks' Home in Atlantic City for use as a technical training school for naval recruits.

Employees of the theatres also recently concluded courses under professional instruction for both first aid and air raid emergencies.

The Elks' Home, located on the corner of 12th and Market streets, was built by the Elks' Local 1234 in 1908. It was used as a home for the aged until 1938, when it was converted into a technical training school for naval recruits.

The school will be used for the training of naval recruits in technical skills, including the use of the compass, the sextant, and the telescope.
