Note of death recd on H-13

State of Georgia

Jasper County, Superior Court.

On this day, Twenty-seventh of April 1821 personally appeared in open Court, being a Court of Records for the Ocmulgee district in said State, John Chatfield aged Sixty-seven years, resident in said district and County who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath declare that he served in the Revolutionary war as follows: First under Captain Philip Hall, under whom he served one year, he then enlisted under Captain Richards of Colonel E. Huntington's Regiment of the Connecticut line, both of which enlistments were in the State of Connecticut, in which Regiment he served upwards of five years; that he was in the battles of Brandywine, White Plains, Monmouth, Stoney Point, and was wounded in a skirmish in Red Bank; that he was discharged in consequence of a rupture which he received whilst in service, by discharge signed by Genl. Huntington, formerly the Colonel above named.

And he solemnly swears that he is a resident Citizen of the United States on the 18th of March 1818: and that he has not since that time, by gift, sale, or in any manner disposed of any property or any part thereof with intent thereby to diminish it so as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land and Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary war" passed on the 18th day of March 1818: and that he has not, nor has any person in trust for him, any property or securities, contracts or debts due to me nor have I any income other than what is contained ^{in the schedule} hereto annexed, and by one submitted.

Two Cows & calves	— $ 20.00
thirteen head hogs	— 25.00
One spinning wheel	— 3.00
Three pots & one oven	— 7.00
One axe & one hoe	— 2.00
Two ploughs & gear	— 4.00
	$ 61.00

This deponent further saith, that his occupation is farming, that his age is about sixty-seven years; his family consists of himself and wife, two female children, one about twelve years of age, the other about two years younger, and a boy about two years younger than the youngest daughter. That he is unable to support himself as well by reason of his advanced age, as by reason of a rupture commonly or technically called Hernia, with which he has been afflicted ever since the Revolutionary war, during which he received the injury; and that his children are unable to support themselves by their own labor.

Sworn to before me this 27th day of April 1821. Peter Chatfield
