

Lakelands Club Has Anniversary Community Group Marks Seventh Birthday—New Officers Installed

Forty-seven members and guests of the Colonial Lakelands Ladies' Club attended the annual installation and Founder's Day banquet recently at the Little White Church in Slackwood.

The following officers were installed: Mrs. Lester Jones, president; Mrs. Theodore Meals, first vice president; Mrs. Michael Palmer, second vice president; Mrs. George Buckner, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Bailey, treasurer.

Gifts were presented to the retiring officers by Mrs. Allan Walker. They are: Mrs. Stephen Majeski, president; Mrs. Theodore Meals, first vice president; Mrs. Raymond Starrett, second vice president; Mrs. Arthur Chidley, secretary, and Mrs. Albert Fink, treasurer. After the presentation of gifts, Mrs. Stephen Majeski gave the farewell address, and a visiting charter member, Mrs. Edward McElroy, a new member, Mrs. D. O. Boster, a visiting past officer, Melvin Haas, and the new president also gave addresses. In celebration of the club's seventh anniversary, the former president lit the candles on the birthday cake.

Following the banquet there was an entertainment that included a farce in one act, entitled, "Thursdays at Home," a piano solo by Irene Yost, a vocal solo by Virginia Hepburn, group singing by the club, and a skit, entitled "The Only Man I Ever Loved."

Mrs. Kenneth Ward was chairman of the banquet and Mrs. John Spooner was chairman of the entertainment committee.

Those present at the banquet were: Mrs. Elmer Applegate, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. E. D. Boster, Mrs. William Brodbeck, Mrs. George Buckner, Mrs. Arthur Chidley, Mrs. Robert C. Davis, Mrs. Albert Fink, Mrs. Francis Golembek, Mrs. Norman H. Hays, Mrs. Albert Hays, Mrs. Leroy Hepburn, Mrs. H. Hillier, Mrs. Fred Holling, Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. James J. Jones, Mrs. E. J. Ask Contributions To Russian Relief Jewish Advisory Council To Be Organized Tuesday Night

As a means of helping to raise Trenton's quota for Russian War Relief, a Jewish advisory council will be organized here Tuesday night. At that time some 75 Jewish leaders of Trenton will meet at the Russian War Relief headquarters at Hotel Hildebrecht to organize the new unit. This follows the example of Newark, where such a group was formed to raise a considerable sum for Newark's quota.

Donations for Russian war relief are being received at the headquarters, and anyone who wishes to give to the fund may send contributions there. The money raised in the nation-wide campaign will be spent for medical and surgical supplies for the Russian army and those civilians whose homes have been along the war front.

SERVICE MEN WILL BE GUESTS TODAY

Under the auspices of the Women's Christian Defense Service Committee, of which Mrs. Russell Black is the chairman, the regular Sunday afternoon Social Home Hour for all men in the service will be held today in the main lobby of the "Y" from 3 to 6:30.

Mrs. Clement C. Callin announces the following committee in charge of refreshments and arrangements for the afternoon: Hostesses and chaperones, Mrs. Cora B. Morris, Mrs. Anna C. Dakin, Miss Mabel A. Callin, Miss V. A. Tomkins and Miss Alice Baulig; junior hostesses, Misses Ethel Prosser, Maureen Locke, Paula Fuchs, Helen Herva, Clara Niralai and Florence Kineinski.

Mrs. John A. Pone will furnish music during the afternoon. The game room, showers and swimming pool may be used by the service men without charge.

James Hoffman, Jr., is Y. M. C. A. secretary to the service men and assists with arrangements.
